

Air 1 serves us by giving an alternate type of programming especially to young people.

It is the best Christian music station on the air and would be greatly missed by its regular listeners with no other alternate.

Air 1 serves the public interest by offering good clean entertainment to families.